FORUM:

- This Sunday: "Sound and the Sense of Hearing" -- As part of the Lenten series of celebrating our senses and how these gifts embody the experience of our Christian faith, Margery McCrum and George Moore will offer a forum on hearing and experiencing sound. They will explore how God calls us - demanding our attention through the fanfare of trumpets, the whirring of angel wings and the word - to be in relationship and dialogue with the Divine. By raising our voices in song and prayer, we respond to God's call.

THIS SUNDAY FROM 2-4 AT THE BRATTLEBORO FOOD CO-OP, ST MICHAEL'S ANIMAL RESCUE TEAM WILL BE HOLDING A BAKE SALE TO SUPPORT LOCAL ANIMAL SHELTERS. Thanks for any help in providing baked items for sale: cookies, muffins, brownies, sweet breads. Please drop off items in the church kitchen by 1 PM this Sunday, March 10. And come to the coop to purchase some goodies and support the animal shelters. Thanks from the Animal Rescue Team (Jayne, Clara, Marian, and Julian)

MORNING PRAYER will be available each weekday, Monday through Friday, at 8:00 AM in the Chapel during Lent.

ST. MICHAEL'S TUESDAY EVENING LENTEN SERIES BEGINS THIS TUESDAY

MARCH 12, 5:15 - 7:15 PM: How do we listen for God's call on our life? How do we recognize and follow Christ's voice as revealed through the wisdom of our own heart, soul, mind, and spirit? Each Tuesday evening in Lent, Duncan Hilton and a team of parishioners who have been studying discernment will lead a workshop. We will share what we have learned and practice discernment with you. This Lenten Series is for anyone who wants to get in touch with your inner wisdom, heart and soul and learn about discernment and prayer practices in the tradition of St. Ignatius. Come to any or all parts of the evening. All are welcome. Each Tuesday will include:
